

REMEMBER THIS

Rob Robinson

Each Sunday, when we eat the Lord's Supper, we remember Jesus. We share together in this act in compliance with Jesus' instructions, "Do this in remembrance of me." As important as that is, it is important that we remember our Lord Jesus Christ all the time, everywhere, and in any situation. Following are some times that it is especially helpful for us to remember the Lord Jesus Christ and what he does for us:

When we stumble

we remember we have an Advocate.

When we are afraid

we remember we have a Shepherd.

When we need advice

we remember we have a Counsellor.

When we realize we have offended our God

we remember we have a Mediator.

When we are lonely

we remember we have a Friend.

When we or a loved one is sick

we remember we have a Healer.

When we are confused

we remember we have a Teacher.

When we are tempted

we remember we have a Lord.

When we aren't sure of our path

we remember we have an Example.

When we are sad

we remember we have a Comforter.

When we are weak

we remember He is our Strength.

When we have guilt

we remember that we have a Sacrifice and a Savior.
